2. You have 20 calendar days after this summons is served on you to file a written response to the attached complaint with the clerk of this court. If you choose to file a written response yourself, you may either file the response electronically by using the Florida Courts E-filing Portal (MyFLCourtAccess.com) or by filing the written response with the clerk of court.
3. A phone call will not protect you. Your written response, including the case number given above and the names of the parties, must be filed if you want the court to hear your side of the case.
4. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court. There may be other legal requirements.
5. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you can contact the Lawyer Referral Service listed on The Florida Bar’s website (floridabar.org). If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may be eligible for free legal aid. You can locate legal aid programs by searching “legal aid” on the Florida Bar’s website.
6. If you file your written response directly with the clerk of court, you must also send a copy of your written response to the “Plaintiff/Plaintiff’s Attorney” named below.
7. You must include an e-mail address in your written response, unless the clerk excuses you from electronic service under the Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.516. A party not represented by an attorney may be excused from e-mail service by filing Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration form 2.601 with the clerk.
